ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage at their home in St. Johnsbury Sunday.

All records for carrying passengers by the Burlington Traction company were broken Saturday, when 15,000 persons boarded the cars.

During the thunder shower of Friday night, a barn on the Albert Riley farm in Franklin was struck by lightning and a cow and three heifers were killed.

E. W. Spencer, whose auto was stolen from a Queen City park garage while he was staying at that summer resort, recovered it in Utica, N. Y., Saturday.

John Conte, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conte of St. Johnsbury, fell from a third-story window of their home Friday and, aside from a few bruises, was unhurt. He was playing near an open window and leaned over too far to look out, losing his balance.

Harold Rousse, who escaped from the industrial school at Vergennes Friday night, reached Burlington the next day, tired and hungry, as he had been without REAL ESTAT food over 24 hours. He finally gave himself up at police headquarters, was given a good dinner and sent back to Vergennes that night.

William B. Jones, aged 101 years, died of old age at the Winooski town poor farm Sunday. He voted as usual at the annual town meeting. He was born in Farnham, P. Q., and would have been 102 at 157 State Street, Montpelier Vt., my years old if he had lived until October, valuable and attractive home, known as For 17 days he had had no nourishment except an occasional spoonful of water.

it was burned to the ground. In the eral governors, other state officials and between Hinesburg and Huntington, and barn were 25 tons of hay, nearly all the prominent people during sessions of the farming tools and property valued at more than $1,000. The cattle and horses property is very desirable as a rooming were out to pasture and, therefore, safe.

Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.
